

Copyright, Underwood & Underwood.

Winter sports at Lake Placid in the Adirondacks are more popular this year than ever. Photograph shows five New York city girls bobsledding. Left to right they are: The Misses L. M. Tuttle, Kathleen Tuttle, J. Garrett, H. M. Garrett and P. Baisou.

Miss Ottilie Barth of Brooklyn second to Miss Elsie Muller of New York in the 440 yard dash for women skaters at Newburg. Photo, International.

Rounding the turn (indicated by flag at left) in the one mile championship race at the Newburg Skating Carnival. Joe Moore, the winner, is second at this point, Charles Jewstraw leading. Photo, Central News.

Above — Miss Mildred Truslow of Brooklyn third in the 440 yard dash for women at the International Skating Carnival at Newburg on New Year's Day. Photo, International.

At Right—Snow birds at the Lake Placid Club at the head of the toboggan slide. Standing ready for the descent are: Miss Marjorie Bartholomew of Pittsburg; Miss Rebecca Williams of Morristown, N. J.; Harvey L. Williams and De Wolfe Barton of Boston. Copyright, Underwood & Underwood.

Martin Littleton being pushed about on the ice at Lake Placid by his son, Martin Littleton, Jr., and his daughter-in-law. Copyright, Underwood & Underwood.

